

The Gospels in 30 Days

Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, from Epiphany, January 6, to February 4, 2027. About 14 minutes a day.

“But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.”

JOHN 20:31, WEB

- One reading a day, about 14 minutes.
- Notice what each Gospel writer includes that the others leave out.
- Good for a group: meet weekly and talk over one passage.
- Fell behind? Skip to today's reading. A plan is a servant, not a debt.
